WHEREAS: Certain present sources of state revenue are likely to be declared unconstitutional and

WHEREAS: If a new Constitutional Convention should be called, it would be at least five years before any relief could be secured by the necessary legislation.

Therefore be it resolved: That it is the opinion of the House that the existing Constitutional Convention be reconvened,

And furthermore that the best interests of the State would be served if the Constitutional Convention when reconvened should submit one general amendment removing those restrictions which now prevent the Legislature from taking the action necessary to equalize taxation, rather than submitting several amendments granting power to the Legislature to levy specific taxes.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORT

In accordance with the Public Statutes of the State of New Hampshire the Commissioners of Rockingham County herewith present the annual reports of the county commissioners, Treasurer, Clerk of the Superior Court, Sheriff, Solicitor, Superintendent of the Farm and House of Correction, Farm Physician, Portsmouth Jail Physician and Auditors for the year ending December 31, 1923.

The County Farm is still under the able management of Mr. Fred Rand, Superintendent and Mrs. Rand, Matron.

Many improvements have been made this year to the exterior and interior of many of the buildings.

The boilers have all been rebuilt. The kitchen in the administration building has been made larger. The large cow barn and adjoining buildings have all been shingled and painted.

Many thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. Rand for their attention to the inmates, which is always a personal one. Also to Dr. Mitchell and his assistant, Miss Lord, as nurse of the institution.

The Court House at Exeter has also had extensive repairs and improvements; the interior of the Court Room having been painted and re-decorated. The slate roof all repaired and a concrete walk, leading from the sidewalk to the court house re-built.

At the Portsmouth Jail the interior has all been freshly papered and painted.

The county bridge at Stratham and Newfields has had considerable laid out upon it to make it safe, but the commissioners believe that a new bridge should be built here, in order to accommodate and make safe for the large amount of travel over it, and it is thought that the State, the Federal Government and the County could make this thing possible.

The children boarded in the various Orphanages in the State and supported by our county remain about the same in number, but an added expense has taken place; as each child is now an expense of fifteen dollars per month to our county for board. Otherwise the cost of the poor off the farm is a little less than last year.

The commissioners wish to thank the selectmen of the various towns, and all who have assisted them in the care of the poor in their respective towns, for their co-operation along this line, and would welcome at the farm anyone who is interested in this branch of the work, to see the manner in which the inmates are cared for, and the way the work is carried on there.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners for Rockingham County:

I herewith submit the annual report of the sanitary and medical department of the County Institution at Brentwood.

Due to the constant attention of the Supt. and Matron and the faithful, unceasing diligence of their staff everything everywhere has been preserved in splendid sanitary and useful condition.

There has been, it would seem, an unusual number of very ill inmates especially cardio-renal cases and cancers. Two of the cancer cases were as distressing and repulsive as I ever saw. What a task for the attendants!

We were very sorry last winter to lose, on account of ill health, the services of Mr. Chas. W. Parshley who had been with us and my chief reliance for 35 years. Also we miss Mrs. Parshley who had given us efficient service for several years.

Providence was good to us in our extreme distress and sent Miss Lord. Tender, faithful care has won from the inmates only words of praise and gratitude and from all others appreciation and deserved praise.

There has been little other change among the employees. All have heartily co-operated with my department and with the management so far as appears.

I am sure if the kitchen force should make a report, thanks for the changing of almost the worst kitchen known in summer into one of the very best would ring out strong.

We still wait with hope and faith in the judgment of the County Delegates for the "Old Ladies' Home" some day.

We have the location, the water, the light and the heat. All we lack is the building.

Many kind friends have supplied more reading matter than usual but none too much. More yet could be well used to relieve the dull hours and help the unfortunates forget much most of us will never know. We thank you and beg for a continuance of the benefaction.

I wish to thank your Board, Supt. and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. Rand, and the entire staff for aid in my work and personal considerations without number.

Respectfully submitted,

A. W. MITCHELL, M. D.

EPPING, N. H., January 1st, 1924.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT

To the Citizens of Rockingham County:

I beg to submit the report of the activities of the Solicitor for the County of Rockingham during the year ending December 31, 1923.

Legal advice has been rendered the Commissioners in such matters as they have had occasion to submit to this office and several debts due to the County have been brought to a settlement by the Solicitor. The services required in civil matters during the year has not been burdensome as there has been nothing of import during this period. In the case of Jeremiah O'Brien vs. the County of Rockingham which was in the Supreme Court at the time of the last report from this office, that court decided the questions of law in favor of the County and thereby terminated the action.

The services rendered in the prosecution and investigation of crime while not dealing with as great a number of individual cases as last year have been far more laborious in that more of the serious crimes have presented themselves for disposition. There were eighty-seven cases actually disposed of in the Superior and Municipal courts. The majority of which were as usual liquor cases. Many of these were for second offenses and necessitated trial both in the Municipal Court and on appeal in the Superior Court before a jury. It seems as though the average illicit liquor dealer who is caught a second time has implicit faith in his ability to mislead a jury into believing him innocent of his crime, but the solicitor is happy to say that so far the juries of this County have not been victims of such practice.

During the past year there have been indictments found by the Grand Jury for serious offences and disposition made of the same as follows:

State vs. Frank Cosco, Murder in the first degree.

In this case the respondent, who fled after the crime has not been apprehended.

State vs. Howard Brown. Murder in the second degree.

In this case the respondent, a resident of Sandown, was tried by Jury at the April term of court at Exeter and was found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree for killing Beatrice Cutler, a female child, aged three years. He was sentenced to States Prison for not less than fifteen years by the court and is there confined.

State vs. Paul Tilenius. Manslaughter in the second degree.

In this case the respondent, a resident of Brooklyn, New York, was tried by the Jury at the October term at Portsmouth and found guilty of manslaughter in the second degree for killing Violet Haviland at Portsmouth. He was sentenced to serve one year and one day in States Prison and to pay a fine of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars and costs taxed at three hundred and seventy-five ($375.00) dollars. He is confined in the State Prison.

State vs. Gertrude Sweeney and Viola Brown. Breaking and entering.

In this case the respondents were tried by jury at the April term at Exeter and were found not guilty.

State vs. Porthes Allen, breaking and entering.

In this case the respondent was tried by jury, found guilty and sentenced to two years in the States Prison where he is now confined.

State vs. Francis Downing. Breaking and entering.

In this case the respondent on arraignment pleaded guilty and was sentenced to States Prison where he is now confined.

State vs. Elmer Roberts. Embezzlement.

In this case the respondent pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the States Prison where he is now confined.

State vs. John Smith and Arthur Mahan. Larceny.

These respondents on arraignment pleaded guilty and were sentenced to jail.

State vs. Herbert Harris. Breaking and entering.

Respondent pleaded guilty and was sentenced to jail.

The foregoing are the outstanding cases of the year in which indictments were returned by the Grand Jury. However, they do not represent all the indictments returned. There are many more for lesser offenses which were disposed of in various ways.

Investigations were made in three deaths caused by automobile drivers. In one case the person responsible for the death died, and in the other two the evidence was such that a charge, if made, could not be sustained beyond a reasonable doubt and for this reason no charges was filed. Many other matters have been investigated. In some of which there was not sufficient evidence to warrant the filing of a charge and there appeared no likelihood of obtaining evidence. In others investigation is being continued with a hope that evidence may be disclosed which will warrant the preferring of charges at a later date. At one time this year it appeared that the slayer of Sam Trilling, who was murdered at Auburn in 1914 had been located, but due to the inability of witnesses to satisfactorily identify the person suspected it was not possible to bring the person before court.

At the time of the solicitor's last report there were two criminal cases pending in the Supreme Court on questions of law, namely, State vs. Conrad Shevlin, in which case the respondent's exceptions were sustained and the respondent discharged. State vs. Stanley Fogg. In which case the court overruled the respondent's exceptions and Mr. Fogg before the case was certified back to the Superior Court applied for petition for a pardon. At a hearing before the Governor and Counsel, the petitioner, Mr. Fogg, was granted leave to withdraw his petition and was confined in the States Prison. Later he petitioned for a pardon which was granted.

The Solicitor again desires to express his appreciation to the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriffs, Chiefs of Police, Police Officers and the many citizens throughout the County for their acts of courtesy and assistance in the discharge of the duties of his office.

Respectfully submitted,

JEREMY R. WALDRON, Solicitor.
